This form is an unofficial worksheet that constitutes the UNT Counseling Program faculty's best judgement regarding certification and endorsement requirements. The official UNT Deficiency Plan is issued by the College of Education, Student Advising Office. Ultimate responsibility for meeting requirements rests with the student. Each student is strongly urged to obtain a copy of current requirements from the office of the State Board for Educator's Certification (SBEC), formerly Texas Education agency, at 1001 Trinity, Austin, TX 78701; (512) 469-3001

STUDENTS NEEDING COUN 5720, COUN 5721 and/or MORE THAN NINE (9) CREDIT HOURS MUST GO THROUGH THE MASTER'S ADMISSIONS PROCESS AND BE ADMITTED TO THE COUNSELING PROGRAM BEFORE ENROLLING IN ANY DEFICIENCY COURSEWORK. Admission materials can be found at <https://coe.unt.edu/counseling-and-higher-education/counseling#masters>. The Counseling Program faculty reserves the right not to accept credit for deficiency coursework completed before prerequisites to that coursework, such as admission to the Counseling Program, were completed.

Please send copies of transcripts along with this form to UNT Counseling Program, 1155 Union Cr. #310829, Denton, TX 76203-5017
